The Springwater Webster Crossing Penny Social is scheduled for set up on April 6 at the Fire Hall. Doors open at Noon on Saturday, April 7 with the drawings beginning at 1 PM. Carl Brehm has consented to be our auctioneer again this year. Come and enjoy finding treasure or to visit with everyone. If you can spare a few hours to help us with set up, please call Brenda Haywood at 585-669-2478. If you have articles you want us to put out at the Social, give her a call as well.

On Friday, April 6, at 1 PM, Ray Ciancaglini (SecondImpact.com) will be presenting at the All Western Evergreen Nursery & Christmas Tree Farm in Springwater to the youth crew and the young people from Lagom Landing. Ray is coming for trees, but he was also willing to give our young people encouragement. Ray has presented at several of our high schools in previous years. Just go on line and learn about this remarkable person who is using his skills to help others.

Jade Perkins (585) 734-7634 shares that the Line Dancing classes will be starting in Springwater in April at the Springwater Legion at 3 PM on Sundays: 4/8, 4/15, 4/22 and 4/29. There may also be one more small session before summer at the Wayland Legion. All classes will again wind down by the end of April this year, but we'll be back again in the fall, and maybe we'll be able to get a summer line dancing get-together or two planned like last year. Lastly, the next community line dancing get together at the Howard Community Center will be Saturday, April 7th at 7 PM.

Tuesday, April 24, 2018 the Springwater / Webster Crossing Historical Society Meeting will feature Amie Alden, Livingston County Historian for What's New at the Livingston County Historian's Office. Amie will give an overview of exciting new programs and projects in the works in her office and how the community can get involved. Also she will provide an overview of the wide variety of resources available on line for researchers to access at the touch of a button. Plan to take advantage of the 6:30 p.m. Dish-to-pass Supper followed by the program held at the American Legion Post #905, 7998 School Street, Springwater. All programs are free and open to the public. Donations for the support of the Historical Society are welcome.

Pat Granger writes news of the Springwater United Methodist Church. "We hope that everyone had a wonderful Easter. On Sunday, April 8th we will be going back to studying "The Story". We will be reading Chapter 5 titled "New Commands and a New Covenant".

Do you crochet? If so, please consider joining with others to crochet poppies. In honor of the 100th year of Veterans Day coming in November 2019, Livingston County Veteran Outreach would like to honor each of the 7000 veterans in our county with a poppy. Volunteers are needed to help with the effort by crocheting a few poppies. All that is needed is your time for this project. Yarn and directions will be provided. Those that have already agreed to crochet are students from Geneseo, Senior groups from Avon, Nunda, and Webster's Crossing. Thank you for considering helping. If interested, please contact Linda Hopkins at 585-678-1757 or give me your name and contact information and I will pass it on to her.

The fourth place we visited on the "FAM" tour of Livingston County on Thursday, March 8, was Adventures & Art: Center for Creativity at 3090 Main Street in Caledonia, Owner, Emily Mattice. You will have to go there to appreciate this place that provides a variety of creative opportunities to all ages. You can join them for classes, workshops, book parties, events, and more! There is a front room that has an ever changing selection of unique handmade giftware, artwork, and products. Their back room has every kind of art nook you can imagine. To start with, you can go on line to their website. I came away with a hand-made tile and two trading cards and a memory of a place that is ever changing with a name like SPLAT in every color of the rainbow. In the next few weeks I will tell you about the 5 other places we visited on this tour on March 8. The Livingston County Chamber in Geneseo hosts tours regularly.

Springwater Community Day on Sunday, 8/12/18. Just a quick reminder that our Gala Committee meeting on Tuesday, 4/10/18 at 7PM at the Springwater Town Hall.
