This Thursday evening, June 7th, the place to be is the Webster's Crossing United Methodist Church just before 7 PM for the first of 6 presentations on Racism sponsored by 7 area churches. This first session will be presented by Ossie Wharton & Bill Lewis of the Wayland United Methodist Church.

After all, I was able to attend the Lagom Landing graduation of the five young people that helped us on the farm during wholesale season: Hunter, Olie, Andrew, Nic, and Jacob. The outstanding part of the whole afternoon were the speeches given by each student highlighting what they learned over the school year. Their speeches included the meaning of work and self control, and how honing their skills in each, can be learned to the point where each could live on their own as a contributing individual in their community. Congratulations are due to Rock and Laurel who are the mentors along with the many friends of Lagom Landing that serve on the board to make the institution viable. One board member pointed out how we need many more communities that pull together like Lagom Landing does to show young people the insight and skills they can develop. Perhaps the students themselves will see the need to become the mentors for the gap years for other students in the years to come. If you are not familiar with Lagom Landing, go on line on your computer or at the local library to become knowledgeable or contact them for a visit. Lagom Landing is located at 7966 Reeds Corners Road in Sparta, Dansville NY 14437; phone: 585-727-1687; Lagom Landing is a hands-on gap program for young people between the ages of 18 and 25.

There were 10 of us on the Springwater Trails Harriett Hollister Hike this past Sunday, June 3rd. Gene, Georgia, and Karl hiked from the parking lot to the lookout and on to the picnic area and back, while Julia and I only walked to the picnic area. Georgia drove my van back to the picnic area. We built a fire in the fireplace and had our social there. The others were Steve, Rick (our leader) Char, Dena, and John L did the long hike. We all stayed for the social and had a super time. The food was good as usual. The most interesting part was that Steve and Karl had not seen each other for many years, but were acquainted and spent awhile "catching up". Besides enjoying some good exercise we have fun socializing. Plan to join us this Sunday when we hike this Sunday. It will be a combination of field, creek and woods on the Sandy Bottom Trail in Honeoye. We will meet at the parking lot on East Lake Road, 3/10 of a mile south of Rte 20A/Main St., Honeoye. The lot is small – about 10 cars max, so some may have to park on the road shoulder. We will all start out together on the field portion and then there are options: head down the path to the long winding creek for a creek walk to explore some of the most interesting rocks seen in the area, and fossils here and there as well. Or, continue walking the field loop into the woods loop and back out to finish the field loop (about 3 miles), then head down to explore the creek. Dena (this hike leader) spent well over an hour exploring the creek with a couple of friends last Spring – there's plentiful treasures to see! Recommended attire includes sturdy shoes with decent treads, walking sticks for creek with slippery stones. For more details, look on line at the website, send inquiries to Springwater Trails, PO Box 162, Springwater, NY 14560 or ask a regular hiker.

Pat Granger from the Springwater United Methodist Church writes: "Wasn't last week a scorcher for the end of May and the beginning of June? Well I for one enjoyed it after our winter that we had but for those that were too hot last week it looks like we are going to have cooler temperatures this week. I don't believe there will be any air conditioners running this week. We are back to reading and studying "The Story". We read about King David who disappointed and broke his relationship with God many times. He committed greed, lust, and murder. There were consequences he had to face because of his sins. God would forgive him. When we commit a sin and break our relationship with God repent and ask for forgiveness. He will forgive you. God loves us all. We are all his children. Have a great and wonderful week."

The next Webster's Crossing United Methodist Church Spaghetti Dinner & Music Jam will be on June 28th, the fourth Thursday of the month. Food service by donation begins at 4:30 PM and music goes on into the night after food service ends at 7 PM.
